Deputy Tom Wylie is a valuable asset to this agency. Not only is Deputy Wylie an employee who continues to be the 1st to always lend a hand to others on and off the job, but he has given back to the precinct that he serves by donating his personal time to assist families in need. In 2015 he was selected, due to is job performance and knowledge to be a field training officer "FTO". He dedicated much of his time to train and help develop our FTO program, while maintaining his assigned district. Being an FTO with this department requires many hours training a new officer from the ground up. Deputy Wylie has proven himself to be an outstanding employee of this office and we are lucky to have him and the knowledge he provides.
