

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Angie Willis

Honoree's Job Title: Deputy Clerk II County Court at Law

Department: County Clerk County Court at Law

Years of Service with the County: 7+

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

On February 16, 2016 the Criminal Court Clerks were directed to complete a project with a deadline of March 11, 2016. The goal was to be no more than one week behind on quality control of all documents filed and recorded in their office. A total of 7,362 "reviewed by quality control" events were added into Odyssey. Angie reviewed 534 more documents than her co-workers. She entered a total of 1,686 quality control events in Odyssey. Each of those 1,686 documents contained three pages, which meant Angie reviewed over 5,058 documents from February 16 to March 9. Without her effort, dedication and willingness to go above and beyond, the Criminal Court Clerks would not have met their goal. While each clerk worked diligently, Angie's efforts were exceptional. For this reason, I would like to nominate Angie Willis for the GEM Award.
