Good afternoon Sheriff,

I wanted to let you know what an outstanding job Major Palmisano has done in assisting our department in setting up our new radio system in the interest of probation officer safety. From the very first time we contacted Major Palmisano regarding this initiative she has exceeded our expectations of collaboration. Her experience and knowledge was invaluable to us in deciding how to implement this project. She guided us through the radio selection/purchase process and set up officer training as well. Additionally, we truly appreciate Jim Rizzo's expertise in the training session. Major Palmisano and Jim Rizzo represented your department well and please know their assistance was greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

Bob Hughes, Director
Collin County CSCD
