Shirley Cook is an account clerk in the Sheriff's Office with some of her responsibilities significantly involved in the Odyssey Go-Live. She spent many hours with the go-live groups and county auditors in preparation for implementation as well as days with the vendor's representative. She works in a lone environment without assistants and her initiative in finding solutions that would satisfy auditors and yet work within Odyssey are to be commended. For those reasons I would like to nominate Shirley to be considered for a GEM award.
