Farewell Letter from Assistant Law Librarian Katy Gill

To the Collin County legal and library community:

On Friday, November 9th, I will be leaving my position as Assistant Law Librarian at the Collin County Law Library in order to stay home with my young children. I have made many friends here and have enjoyed working with all of the judges, attorneys, county departments, and area librarians over the years.

Working for the Law Library has been a rewarding journey. My first few months on the job here as a fledgling librarian were definitely a learning experience. I will never forget the day that an attorney walked into the Law Library and introduced me to his assistant, telling her that we had a top-notch law library and that the librarians were great, etc. Then he turned to me and said, "We're looking for lis pendens." I thought carefully for a moment, and then replied, "I'm sorry, I don't know her." An odd look crossed his face and then he went back into the stacks, pulling out a book with a section discussing notices of lis pendens. Needless to say, I was mortified. I'm sure that attorney had a good laugh later on over the librarian who didn't know who "Liz Pendens" was.

Over time, though, I came to learn a lot about the law and how to help people find information in the library. The attorneys I met along the way were friendly, patient, and a pleasure to work with. I also had a wonderful mentor in the library's Director, Judy McCullough. Judy provided guidance and the benefit of her vast experience in legal research. Her support and instruction helped me to find my footing and become a successful law librarian.

I've had many wonderful experiences here over the years. In the five and a half years that I've been with the Law Library, I helped implement our first-ever online library catalog, celebrated the Law Library's 25th anniversary, participated in the Collin County Young Lawyers Association Wills for Heroes program, attended countless bar association meetings, and built positive relationships with attorneys and county personnel. As a professional librarian, I collaborated with North Texas area librarians via quarterly RefNet librarian seminars and also served several years as a committee chair for the Dallas Association of Law Librarians. What made these experiences most rewarding was the relationships that were built and the knowledge that was shared.

The Collin County legal community is a friendly and welcoming group of professionals. It has been a real pleasure working with all of you. I thank you all for the great experience and good memories.

—Katy Gill

Library News and Notes

The New Shelving Has Arrived

We are happy to report that all of the shelving has finally been installed in the new Law Library space. Due to some problems during the move, some of our shelving had to be replaced and some of the books had to be stored on carts in a space behind the library until the new shelves arrived. The materials in storage have been placed on the shelves and the new Law Library is completely moved into the new space at last!

Unclaimed Faxes

The Law Library permits attorneys to receive faxes on the library's fax machine at a charge of $1.00 per page. Lately, we have received many faxes addressed to attorneys that no one comes to pick up and pay for. We cannot continue to offer this service if the faxes are not retrieved and paid for in a timely manner. If you have a fax sent to the Law Library, please pick it up and pay for it within 24 hours.

Unpaid IOUs

The Collin County Law Library has always been happy to permit attorneys to leave an IOU with the librarian for the purchase of photocopies, printouts, and faxes made in the Law Library. Attorneys are then invoiced at the end of each month for their IOUs. Lately, several of these IOU invoices have gone unpaid. The IOU system is a courtesy that the Law Library extends to attorneys, but if invoices continue to go unpaid, the Library will no longer be able to provide this service. If you think you have an unpaid IOU invoice from the Library, please drop by the Reference Desk or contact the librarian at: 972-548-4255.

I want to do legal research from home on the Internet. Where do I start?

Answer:

The Collin County Law Library web site!

www.co.collin.tx.us/law_library/

We have added a Legal Research Links page to our web site. Now you can access the very best the web has to offer in free legal research resources right from the Collin County Law Library web site. We have compiled primary law resources for both Texas and Federal law, as well as sites that allow you to access online law reviews and journals, court web sites, legislative research sites, other law libraries around Texas, and more!

Each of the web sites listed was hand-selected by your law librarians and carefully evaluated for quality of information and ease of use.

*Please note: The web sites included on our Legal Research Links page provide information that is NOT based on opinion. However, online resources are not considered to be authoritative. For the OFFICIAL version of the law, visit the Law Library.
