Help us share our heritage!

The Collin County Farm Museum proudly presents the first annual Collin County Rural Heritage Fair! On Saturday, May 13, 2017, from 10 am—3 pm, people from around the county will join us for a free family-friendly celebration of our rural heritage. The fair will boast craft stations for kids, demonstration areas for adult educational programs, farm heritage activities, and shopping for handcrafted arts and crafts.

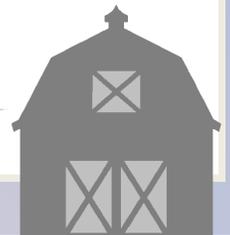

We are currently seeking volunteers to assist with the event. We need help directing visitors to parking, setting up/tearing down demonstrator and artisan booths, counting visitors and visitor information, as well as the all important job of ensuring all volunteers, participants and visitors are well hydrated and energized throughout the event.

Whether you're mobile or need to stay seated, you can help the Collin County Farm Museum produce a historic event promoting the heritage of Collin County.

The volunteer application has a full list of opportunities with corresponding schedules and physical requirements. If you are interested in learning more or receiving an application, please contact Jennifer Rogers at 972-548-4792 or ccfm@collincountytx.gov.

Be a part of the heritage that will be the Collin County Rural Heritage Fair for years to come!
