

Resources for Legal Representation in Texas

Because the Collin County Probate Court is unable to recommend or refer attorneys in the area of probate, guardianship, or any other area of law, we have compiled this list of resources that may help applicants to locate an attorney or service who may be able to assist them with legal needs in our Court. Please note that this list has an emphasis on low-income representation and a maximum income threshold may be in place for representation.

General resources:

If you host a legal clinic resource or are aware of a resource not included above that serves Collin County, please contact the probate Court so we are able to review the resource and add it to the above list. Additionally, if any of the above links do not work properly, please inform the Probate Court. This enables us to replace it with an operational link or remove the resource if it is no longer available.

Thank you,
