

Proposed Precinct Changes 2025

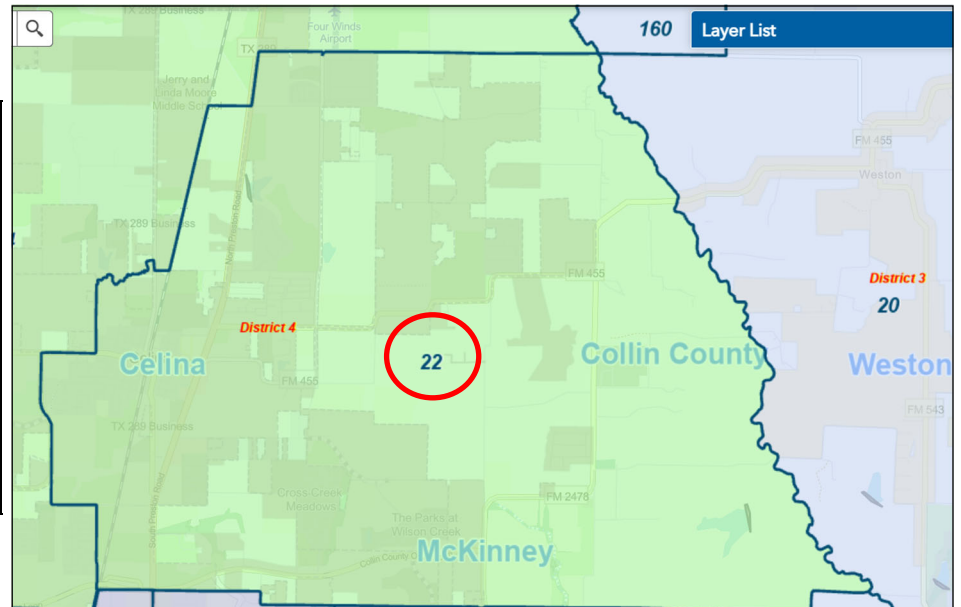

Redistricting Plan C2333

Effective January 1, 2026

Revised 9/9/2025

Collin County Elections—Redistricting—Proposed Precinct Changes—November 2025 (Effective January 1, 2026)

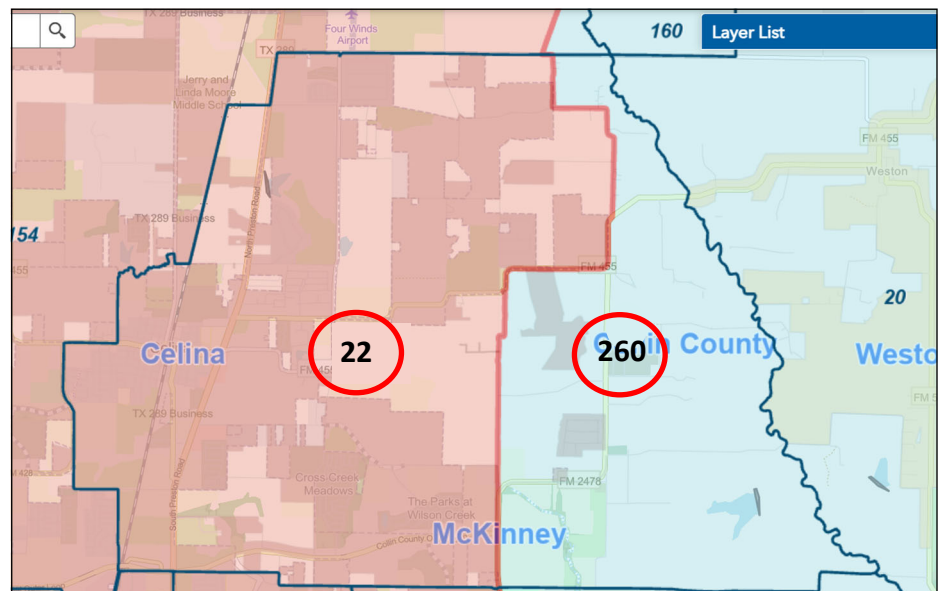

Current Precinct:	22
Current Congressional District:	4
Current Texas House District:	66
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	1
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

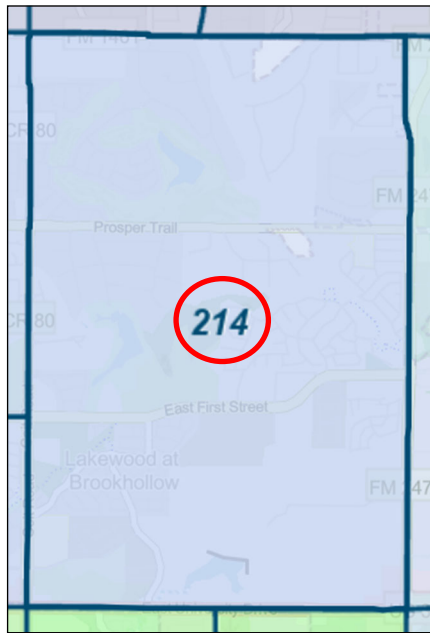

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 22 will use proposed Congressional line as split line. Precinct 22 was initially going to be split because the Active registered voter totals exceeded 5,000. NEW SPLIT: South on County Road 133 from precinct line and County Road 134. Continue south all the way to W FM 455. Head south/southwest on FM 455 to County Road 127. Follow County Road 127 south to FM 2478, then south on FM 2478 to precinct line at Choate Pkwy. and County Road 125.
---------------------	---

Proposed Precinct Split:	22
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	66
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Proposed Precinct Split:	260
Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	66
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

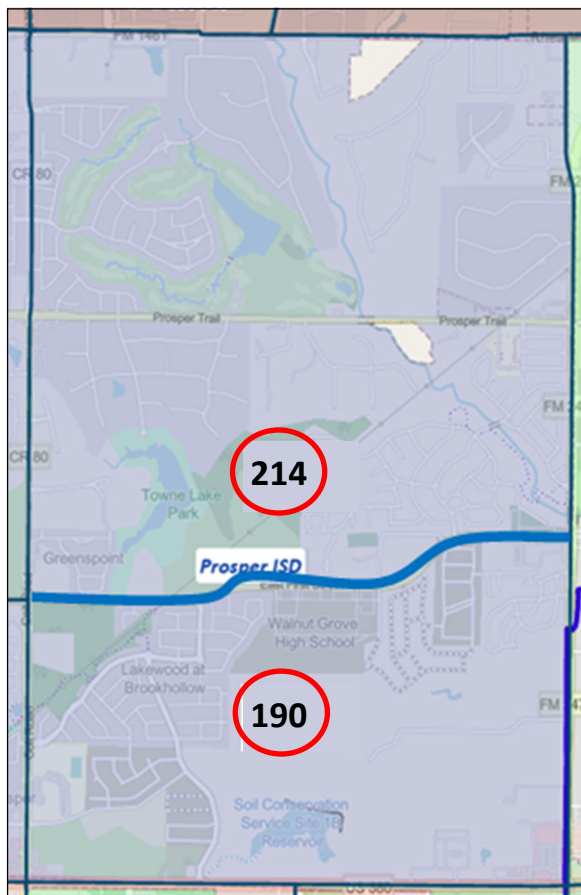

Current Precinct:	214
Current Congressional District:	3
Current Texas House District:	66
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	1
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

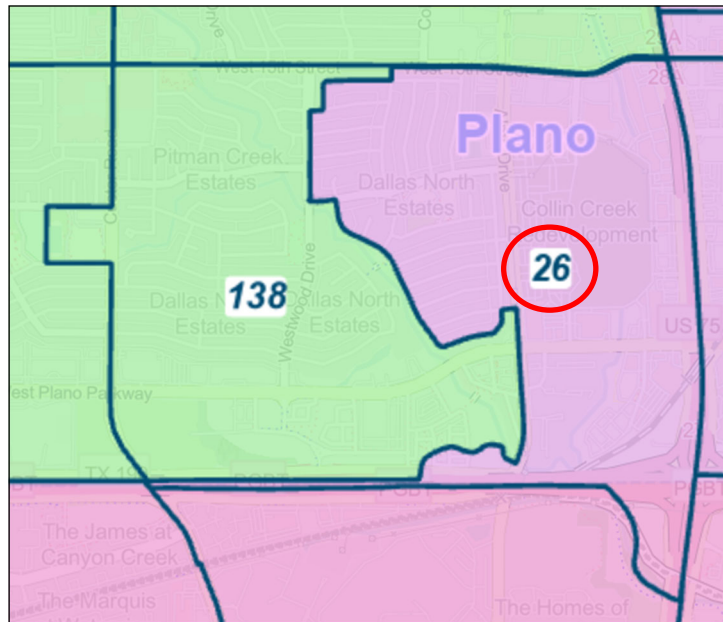

Summary of Changes:	The proposed Congressional line changes Precinct 214 from Congressional District 3 to Congressional District 4. Precinct 214 was initially going to be split because the Active registered voter totals exceeded 4,500. SPLIT: East to West on East First St., precinct line to precinct line.
----------------------------	---

Proposed Precinct Split:	214
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	66
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Proposed Precinct Split:	190
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	66
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

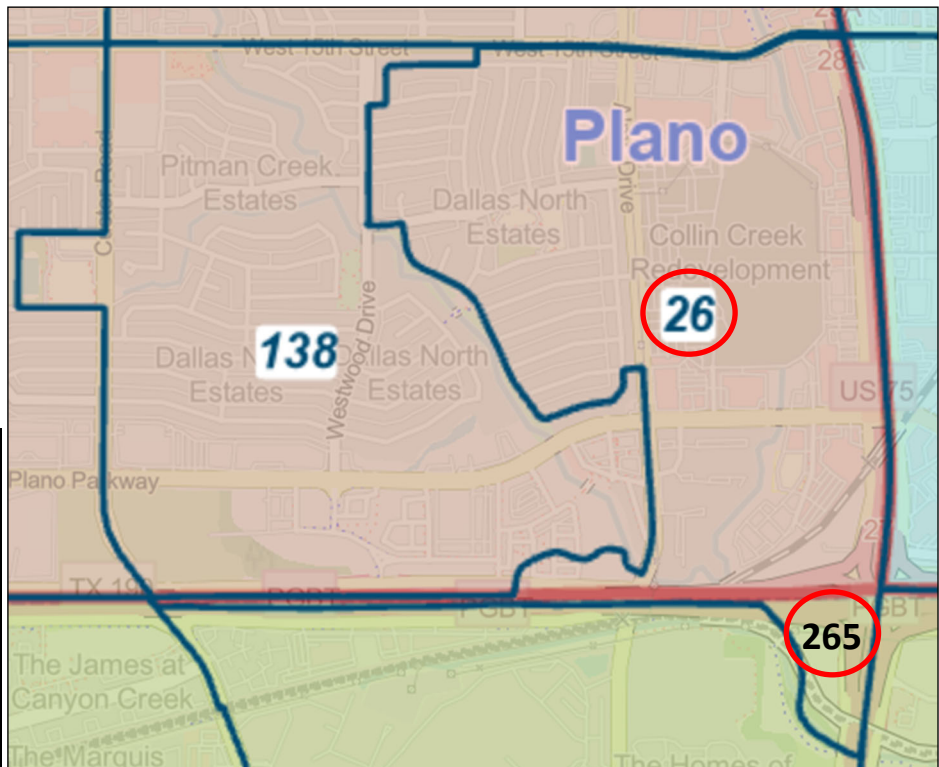

Current Precinct:	26
Current Congressional District:	32
Current Texas House District:	70
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	4
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 26 will split along proposed Congressional line. SPLIT: W. President George Bush Pkwy. from precinct line to precinct line. This will create new Precinct 265. Proposed Precinct 265 will have zero voters.
---------------------	--

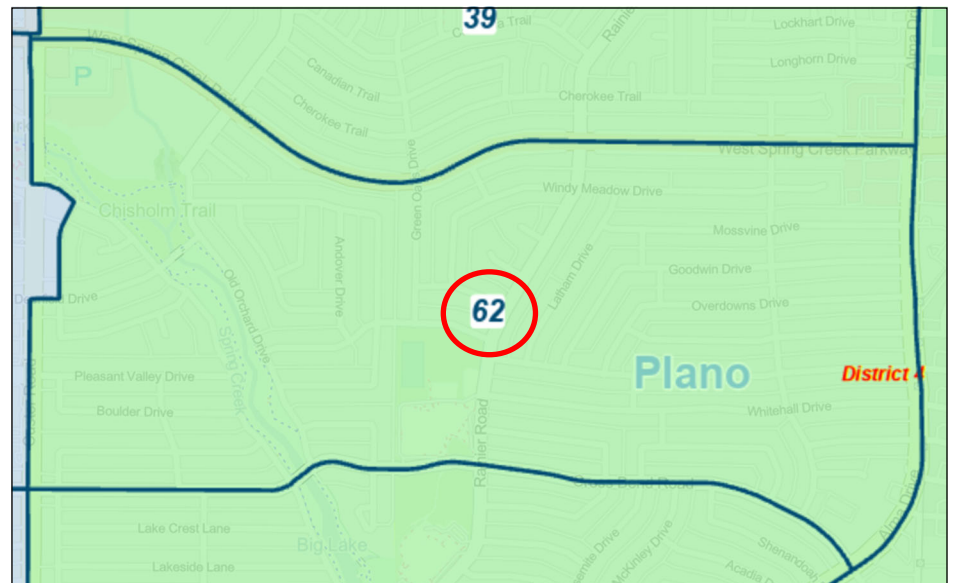

Proposed Precinct Split:	26
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	70
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	4
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

Proposed Precinct Split:	265
Proposed Congressional District:	32
Proposed Texas House District:	70
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	4
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

Collin County Elections—Redistricting—Proposed Precinct Changes—November 2025 (Effective January 1, 2026)

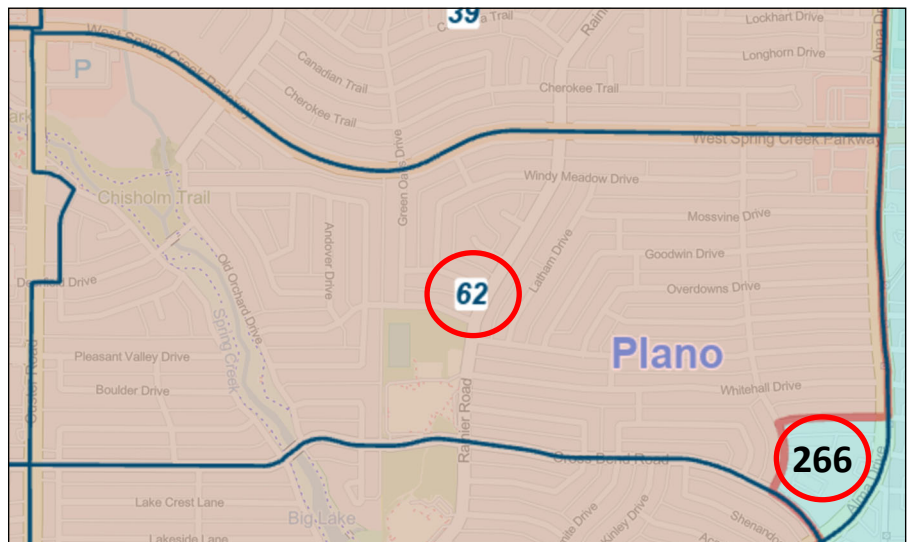

Current Precinct:	62
Current Congressional District:	4
Current Texas House District:	67
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	4
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 62 will split along proposed Congressional line. SPLIT: Arbor Downs Dr. west from precinct line to Branch Hollow Dr., south on Branch Hollow Dr. to precinct line. This will create new Precinct 266. Proposed Precinct 266 will have <100 active voters.
----------------------------	---

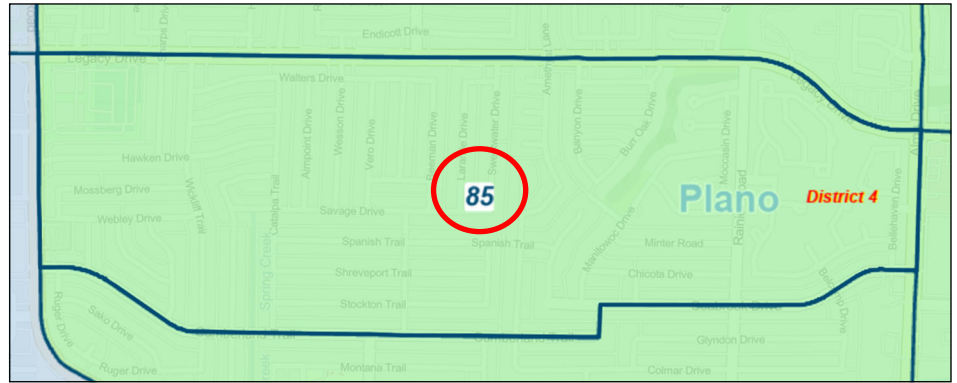

Proposed Precinct Split:	62
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	67
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	4
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

Proposed Precinct Split:	266
Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	67
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	4
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

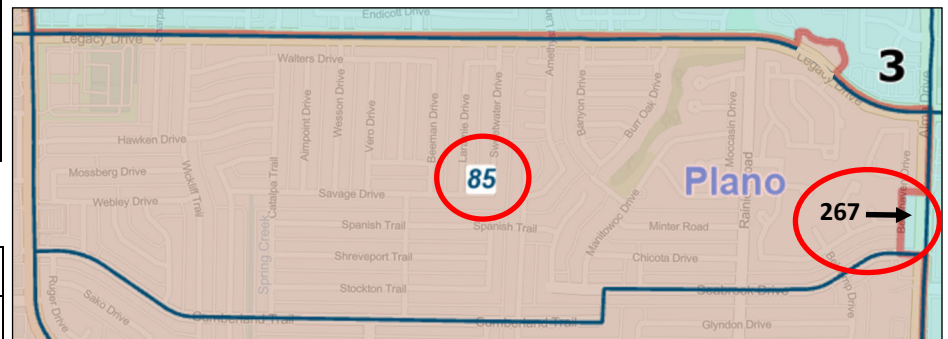

Collin County Elections—Redistricting—Proposed Precinct Changes—November 2025 (Effective January 1, 2026)

Current Precinct:	85
Current Congressional District:	4
Current Texas House District:	67
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	4
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

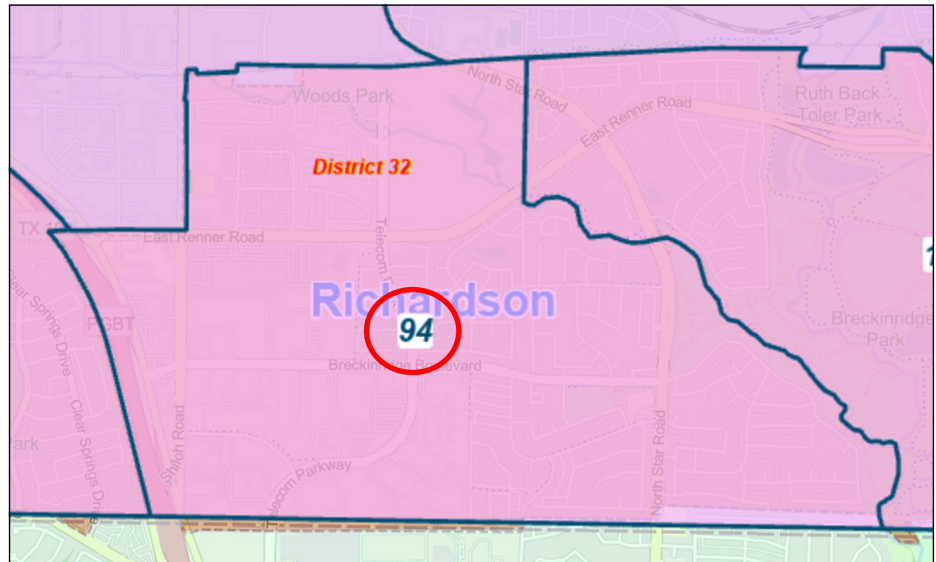

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 85 will be divided along the proposed Congressional line. This will require two splits.
	SPLIT: Proposed Congressional line runs east on Legacy Dr., north along Hoblitzelle Park, then east/southeast on Hoblitzelle Park back to Legacy Dr. The Congressional Line cuts through the Garden Gate Apartments (1201 Legacy Dr.), separating that section from Precinct 77 and merging it into Precinct 85.
	SPLIT: The proposed boundary line continues south along Alma Dr. to Barton Creek Ln, west on Barton Creek Ln to Bellehaven Dr., north on Bellehaven Dr. to Seabrook Dr., and east on Seabrook Dr. back to Alma Dr.
	This Congressional line results in the creation of new Precinct 267. Proposed Precinct 267 will have <100 active voters.

Proposed Precinct Split:	85
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	67
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	4
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

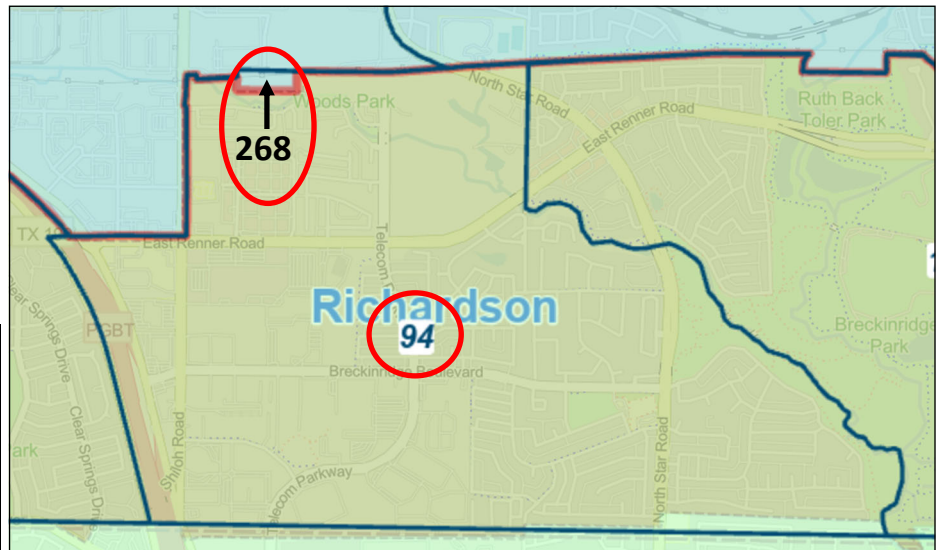

Proposed Precinct Split:	267
Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	67
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	4
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	3

Current Precinct:	94
Current Congressional District:	32
Current Texas House District:	33
Current Texas Senate District:	2
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	2
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	2

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 94 will split along proposed Congressional line. SPLIT: East to west on proposed Congressional line following the city boundaries of Plano and Richardson. This deviation from the precinct line creates new Precinct 268. Proposed Precinct 268 will have zero voters.
---------------------	--

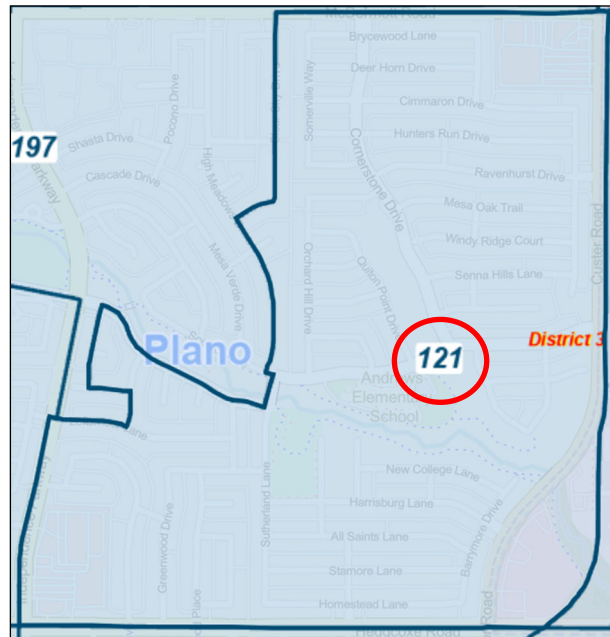

Proposed Precinct Split:	94
Proposed Congressional District:	32
Proposed Texas House District:	33
Proposed Texas Senate District:	2
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	2
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	2

Proposed Precinct Split:	268
Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	33
Proposed Texas Senate District:	2
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	2
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	2

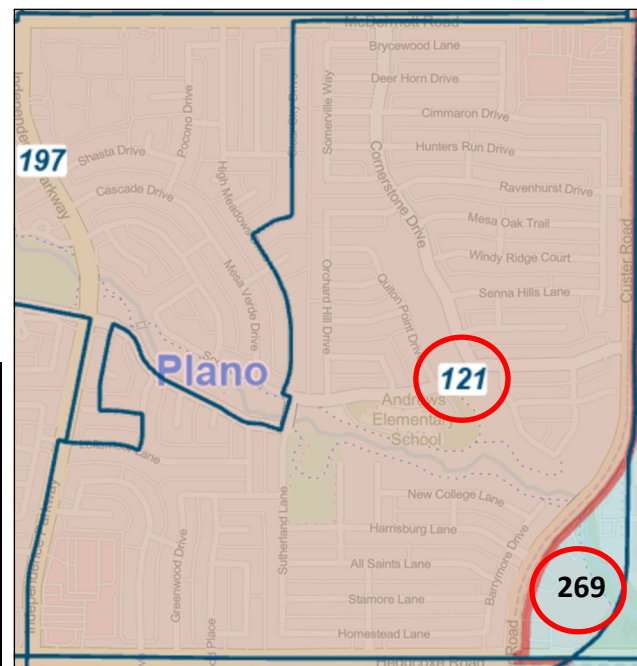

Collin County Elections—Redistricting—Proposed Precinct Changes—November 2025 (Effective January 1, 2026)

Current Precinct:	121
Current Congressional District:	3
Current Texas House District:	70
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	1
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

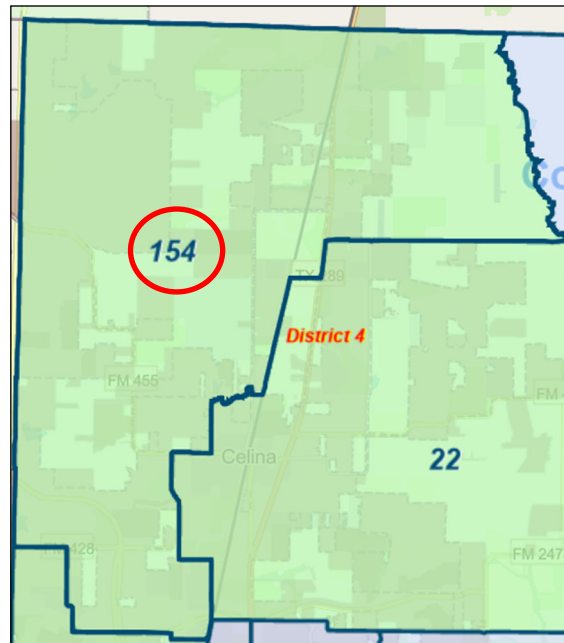

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 121 will split along the proposed Congressional line. SPLIT: Custer Rd., north to south from precinct line to precinct line. This line also follows along the Plano and Allen city boundary line. This line creates new proposed Precinct 269. Precinct 269 will have zero active voters.
----------------------------	--

Proposed Precinct Split:	121
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	70
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Proposed Precinct Split:	269
Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	70
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

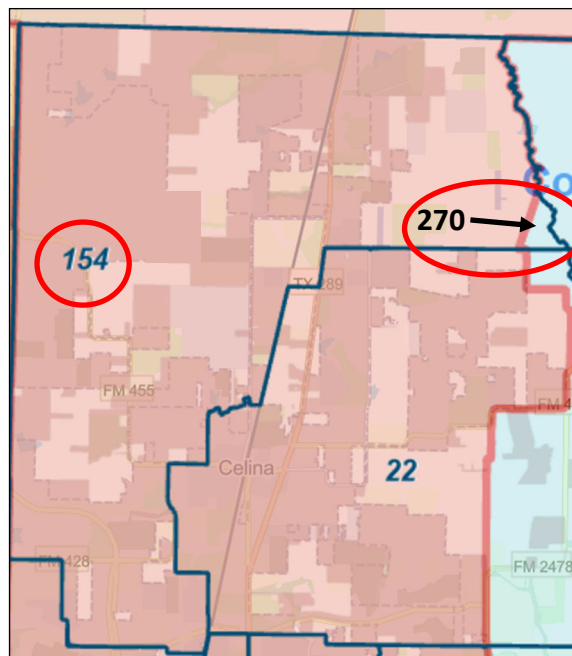

Current Precinct:	154
Current Congressional District:	4
Current Texas House District:	66
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	1
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 154 will split along proposed Congressional line. SPLIT: Follow power lines north to southeast from precinct lines 154 & 160 to 154 & 022. The proposed Congressional line creates new Precinct 270. Precinct 270 will have <10 active voters.
---------------------	--

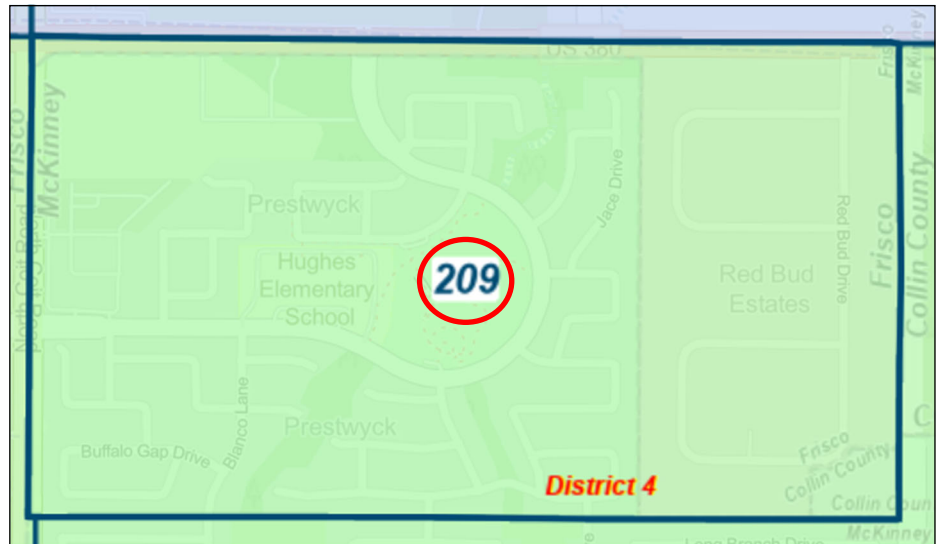

Proposed Precinct Split:	154
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed Texas House District:	66
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Proposed Precinct Split:	270
Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	66
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

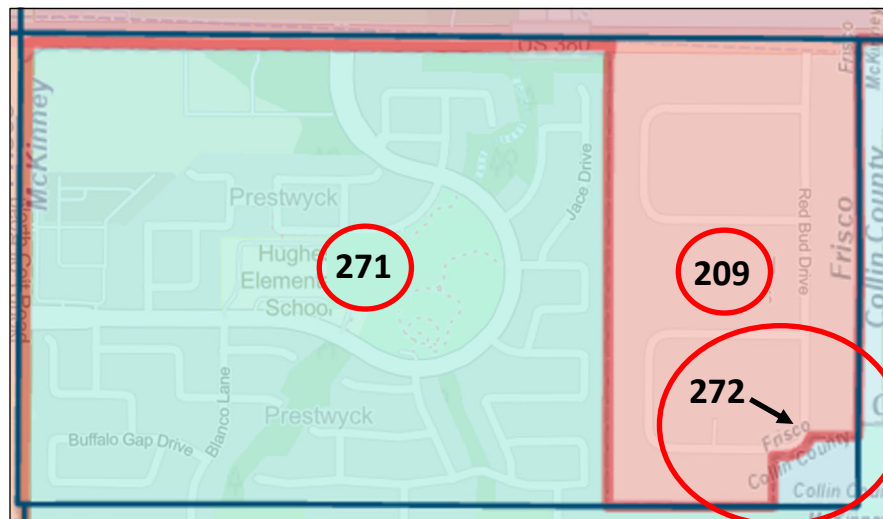

Collin County Elections—Redistricting—Proposed Precinct Changes—November 2025 (Effective January 1, 2026)

Current Precinct:	209
Current Congressional District:	4
Current Texas House District:	61
Current Texas Senate District:	30
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	1
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

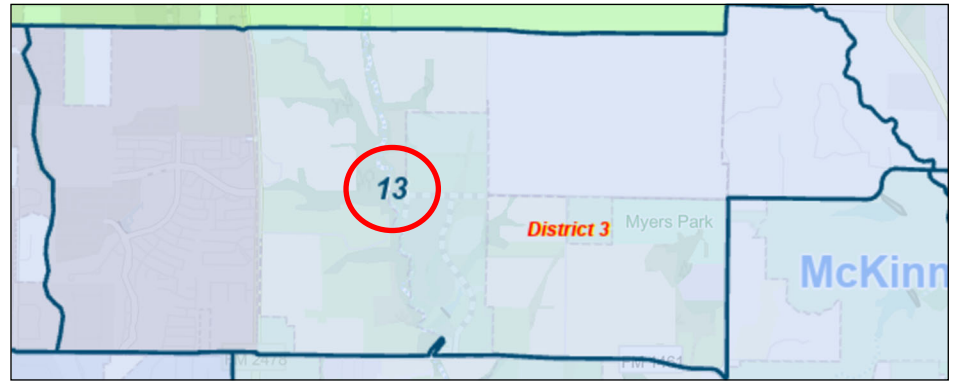

Summary of Changes:	Precinct 209 will split along proposed Congressional line. The proposed Congressional line creates 2 new precincts, 271 and 272. SPLIT: North to south on the McKinney and Frisco city line from precinct line to precinct line. This will create Precinct 271. Precinct 271 will then split along Congressional line in the southeast corner. PRECINCT 271 SPLIT: The proposed Congressional line follows the split along the Collin County and Frisco city line from the southern precinct line north/northeast, then east to precinct line. The proposed Precinct 271 split will create Precinct 272. Precinct 272 will have one residence with one active voter.
---------------------	--

Proposed Precinct Split:	209	Proposed Precinct Split:	271	Proposed Precinct Split:	272
Proposed Congressional District:	4	Proposed Congressional District:	3	Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	61	Proposed Texas House District:	61	Proposed Texas House District:	61
Proposed Texas Senate District:	30	Proposed Texas Senate District:	30	Proposed Texas Senate District:	30
Proposed State Board of Education:	12	Proposed State Board of Education:	12	Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1	Proposed Commissioner District:	1	Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4	Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4	Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

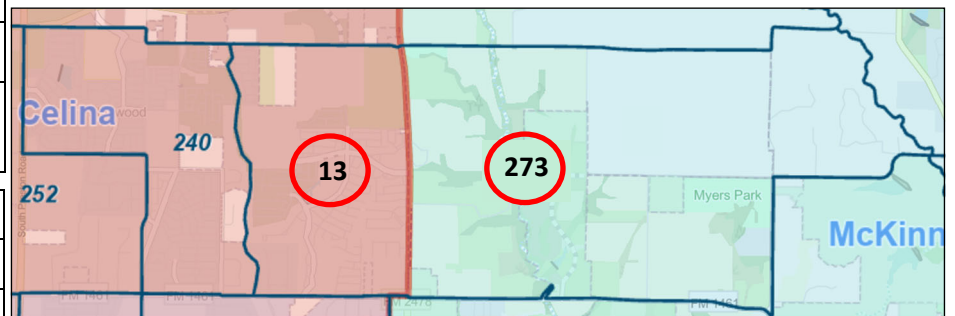

Collin County Elections—Redistricting—Proposed Precinct Changes—November 2025 (Effective January 1, 2026)

Current Precinct:	13
Current Congressional District:	3
Current Texas House District:	61
Current Texas Senate District:	8
Current State Board of Education:	12
Current Commissioner District:	1
Current Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Summary of Changes:	The proposed Congressional line will split Precinct 13 at the Celina and McKinney city line. SPLIT: Beginning at the northern precinct line, the proposed Congressional line runs south to the precinct line. The split will create new Precinct 273.
----------------------------	---

Proposed Precinct:	13
Proposed Congressional District:	4
Proposed TX House District:	61
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Proposed Precinct:	273
Proposed Congressional District:	3
Proposed Texas House District:	61
Proposed Texas Senate District:	8
Proposed State Board of Education:	12
Proposed Commissioner District:	1
Proposed Justice of the Peace / Constable District:	4

Current Precincts with Proposed Congressional Line Change

PRECINCT	CURRENT CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT	PROPOSED CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT
15	3	4
19	3	4
23	32	3
28	3	4
31	3	4
32	3	4
34	3	4
46	32	3
50	4	3
51	32	3
52	32	3
53	3	4
54	4	3
58	4	3
63	3	4
64	3	4
65	3	4
68	32	3
69	3	4
71	3	4
76	3	4
81	3	4
86	3	4
87	3	4
90	3	4
101	3	4
103	32	3
107	3	4
112	3	4
116	3	4
117	3	4
118	3	4
119	3	4
127	3	4
137	3	4
146	3	4
152	32	3
158	4	3
163	4	3
178	3	4
180	4	3
197	3	4
202	3	4
213	4	3
224	3	4
226	4	3
234	3	4
239	3	4
244	3	4
246	3	4
252	3	4