Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Edwin McGill has gone above and beyond in every way this last year. When we had two changes in coordinators (middle of 2025 and middle of 2026), he stepped up in every way to assist with the administrative duties. He still outperformed in every way in court security and maintaining the safety of the courtroom and going the extra mile on his training, but he also took on administrative and scheduling tasks without question. He assisted with answering 100's of emails and phone calls, learning how to efile and assisting with the queues, ensuring I was made aware of emergency motions that required immediate attention, and scheduling court matters. Although I appreciate a team who are all team players, this level of commitment by Officer McGill was above and beyond. He deserves all the praise and recognition for his efforts and accomplishments. I frequently receive compliments about Office McGill and his professionalism, efficiency, and the way he treats everyone in my court with respect and integrity. I'm very appreciative of Officer McGill.
