Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

During the last year, the department experienced significant staffing shortages. As we began filling the vacancies several new staff were hired within days of each other, which resulted in several new employees that needed training. Abby gladly stepped into the role of trainer. She sat with each new hire and ensured they thoroughly understood how to perform each duty. Abby not only provided the training, she also ensured her own goals and objectives were met such as assisting with e-recording and clearing the queue by the end of each day. Abby stayed positive even when at times the situation became stressful. Thank you Abby! You are a valuable asset to the office and we could not have gotten through these challenges without you!
