Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

We would like to present Blythe with this award in recognition of her outstanding commitment and dedication to the indirect unit. She consistently goes above and beyond in supporting her coworkers and demonstrating an exceptional willingness to help wherever needed. Blythe has not only excelled in her own responsibilities as a caseworker but most in July and August 2024, she stepped in to assist another coworker in meeting deadlines, developing a workflow system, and training where needed. Blythe proactively identified areas where support was most needed, volunteering to take on additional tasks and providing guidance to team members. She did all of this while maintaining high-quality work and a very large caseload of her own. It is obvious she is passionate about training and mentoring others, having made significant contributions to the training of our two most recent caseworkers.

We are grateful for her assistance and are proud to recognize her for going the extra mile!
