

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Christina Skipper

Honoree's Job Title: Chief Felony Prosecutor

Department: District Attorney

Years of Service with the County: 6

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Christina Skipper regularly, enthusiastically, and wisely assists and collaborates with area law enforcement agencies around the clock. Officers, detectives, sergeants, and chiefs routinely convey their sincere appreciation for her availability and counsel on matters ranging from murder cases to innovative approaches in combating drug trafficking and organized crime.

She has emerged as a statewide leader in training law enforcement personnel on strategies to combat drug trafficking, with a particular focus on critical issues like fentanyl and THC. Her expertise and proactive initiatives have significantly enhanced the capabilities of law enforcement across the state, contributing to safer communities.

Within the office, Christina is quick to volunteer her assistance to her teammates and consistently leads efforts to celebrate their accomplishments. Her enthusiasm and supportive nature foster a collaborative and motivating work environment, enhancing team morale and productivity.
