

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Evelyn Rutherford

Honoree's Job Title: Administrative Manager

Department: District Attorney

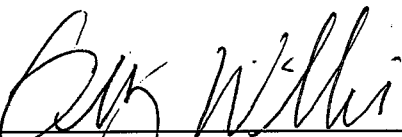

Years of Service with the County: 12 Years

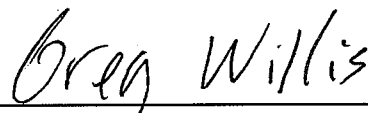

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Evelyn is nominated for her exceptional initiative and ability to handle complex situations quickly and efficiently. During a murder case in May 2024, the victim's family, who had flown in from NYC, faced issues checking into their hotel due to the hotel's credit card policy. Despite the DA Investigator's attempts to resolve the issue, the family was left waiting in the hotel lobby for over four hours. When the investigator sought Evelyn's advice, she took over and had the situation resolved in less than 15 minutes.

Evelyn is also incredibly resourceful, often doing the work of three people while being constantly interrupted with questions that are never quick. She always knows where to find the right information or who to contact for answers. Her willingness to stop what she's doing to help and her consistent delivery of high-quality work, even under pressure, are invaluable to our team.
