

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Jared Clark

Honoree's Job Title: Felony Investigator

Department: District Attorney

Years of Service with the County: 18

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

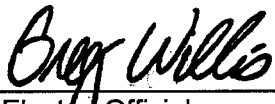

Felony Investigator Jared Clark has exemplified remarkable dedication by voluntarily assisting fellow investigators with the setup of the new body-style armor issued to the team. He proactively met with investigators individually, as needed, to assess and ensure the proper fit of the body armor, demonstrating a personal commitment to the safety and readiness of his colleagues.

Beyond providing hands-on assistance, Jared also made valuable recommendations for body armor accessories that are currently under research. His insights contribute to the potential enhancement of equipment effectiveness for the entire team.

Investigator Clark's assistance has been above and beyond his normal duties, which he continues to perform in a superlative manner. His willingness to invest extra time and effort not only improved the transition to new equipment but also fostered a supportive and collaborative environment within the team.

The Office is better equipped to accomplish our mission of pursuing justice and protecting our community because of Investigator Clark's exceptional support and initiative.
