Paula has been with the District Clerk's office for three years. Since her employment with the District Clerk's office, she has continuously remained one of the highest ranking clerks in our electronic filing system. During this time, she has also maintained an exceedingly low level in her error rate. Not only does Paula exceed in this area of her job duties, she also accepts a large volume of phone calls, helps her court pull filings for daily docket, processes Protective Orders throughout the busy day, and has become a "go to" person whenever assistance is needed from her coworkers. Paula's positive work ethic and ability to multi task are all great assets to the District Clerk's office.
