

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Addison Holcomb

Honoree's Job Title: Tech I

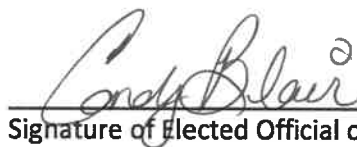

Department: Public Health

Years of Service with the County: 3 years

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award:

Addison has demonstrated exceptional dedication, professionalism, and kindness in every aspect of her work. She consistently goes above and beyond to support both patients and her colleagues regardless of the circumstances or demands of the day. At every opportunity, she instinctively steps forward to help and uplift others. Addison's willingness to support her colleagues has been shown when she helps explain complex immunization clinic processes which lead to a positive and highly effective clinic environment. Addison's ability to multi-task, maintain exceptional attention to detail, and continual readiness to go the extra mile for others makes her an invaluable member of the team and a truly deserving recipient of this award.
