

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Briana Munoz

Honoree's Job Title: Registered Nurse

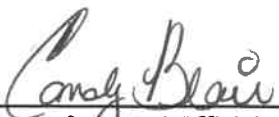

Department: Public Health

Years of Service with the County: 7 Months

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award:

Briana consistently delivers high-quality and compassionate patient care in the STD clinic where the pace is fast, the caseload is demanding, and patients often require complex and sensitive support. She demonstrates exceptional time management and clinical efficiency while ensuring that every patient is treated with dignity, respect, and empathy even during high volume periods and presentation of complex cases. In addition to her direct patient care, Briana strengthens the overall function of the clinic by supporting quality improvement efforts, maintaining smooth patient flows, and assisting with follow-up coordination for patients requiring additional testing or treatment. She approaches every task with professionalism and consistently ensures patients receive the highest standard of care.
