Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

It is my honor to nominate Ashley Gidney-Bingham for the G.E.M. Award in recognition of her exceptional performance, leadership, and dedication to the success of our court.

Following the retirement of our Court Administrator after 25 years of service, Ashley assumed responsibility for leading the administrative operations of the court during a critical period of transition. Since stepping into this role, she has consistently exceeded expectations and demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to excellence. Ashley has developed innovative systems to track employee performance, providing valuable tools for employee development while improving accountability and efficiency throughout the office. Her efforts have enabled staff members to strengthen their skills and have enhanced the court's ability to effectively manage its growing caseload.

In addition to improving personnel management, Ashley has utilized her talents to create effective methods for tracking court data, preparing and submitting state reports, and overseeing the court's financial and accounting functions. Her attention to detail, organizational skills, and ability to develop practical solutions have significantly enhanced court operations. Ashley continually identifies opportunities for improvement and implements processes that benefit both the court and the citizens we serve.

Ashley consistently goes above and beyond the duties of her position. Her professionalism, innovation, and unwavering dedication make her an invaluable member of our team. It is my sincere belief that the G.E.M. Award was created to recognize employees like Ashley, whose contributions have a lasting and meaningful impact on their organization. She is highly deserving of this recognition, and I am proud to nominate her for this honor.
