Honoree's Job Title: Juvenile Probation Officer

Years of Service with the County: 2 yrs 3 mos

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

In April, Brooke received a transfer case from Dallas County, for Disposition in May. At initial contact, the child and family presented with multiple concerns and issues, including not attending school, being very disrespectful to Mother, leaving home without permission, driving a car that does not belong to her, all while having a 5 moth old child of her own. The Respondent was not responding appropriately to supervision. This situation was extra problematic due to there being no existing court orders from Dallas County. Brooke began meeting regularly with the family, maintaining almost constant contact. She started exploring numerous options related to disposition, including our CTD specialty court program and Traffic 911 but, the family refused participation. Brooke continued, working closely with CPS and appointed Guardian Ad Litem. A Psychological evaluation was obtained. In it, a referral to our mental health court program was supported. Brooke provided testimony at the disposition hearing and the court followed her recommendation. The child is currently receiving services via our mental health court program due to Brooke's efforts. Brooke went above and beyond with this very complex and demanding case. She is an asset to our department and the field supervision unit.
