Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Since I obtained the Unit Supervisor position in May 2025, Joey has carried an increased number of specialized offenders on his caseload, due to the reassignment of some of my cases following my transition into this role. Despite the demands of this workload, he has managed his caseload diligently and continues to perform at a high level, ensuring his cases are handled thoroughly and professionally. During the period in which we have been working to hire additional staff to assist with this caseload, Joey has shown exceptional patience, flexibility, and commitment. He has continued to meet expectations and support the department without complaint and maintaining focus on the needs of his juveniles.
