Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

I, Darla Falefia, would like to recognize Mrs. Walker in her role with the Juvenile Probation Department. Mrs. Walker has consistently demonstrated her willingness to step in where ever she is needed to cover departmental duties. She volunteers to cover the receptionist area when secretarial staff are unavailable or on lunch breaks. She is bilingual and is always willing to help non-bilingual officers translate or conduct office visits/intakes on a short notice.

Recently Mrs. Walker has gone beyond the scope of her assigned duties and greatly assisted with training of new employees. She is always open to answering their questions, allowing them to sit in and shadow her during her family meetings. She also takes time from her day to sit in with the new hires and help with their office visits and intakes and has assisted them in learning the finger-printing system in detention.

Mrs. Walker's willingness to step outside of her normal responsibilities, support her fellow officers and assist with training, and contribute to the overall success of the McKinney Probation Office Field Unit exemplifies what it means to go the extra mile. her dedication and commitment are greatly appreciated and deserving of recognition.
