Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

I would like to nominate Julie Monge for a GEM Award in recognition of her exceptional initiative, dedication, and willingness to take on additional responsibilities.

Following our recent office move, Julie went above and beyond her regular responsibilities to help organize and establish our new office. She invested considerable time and effort into making our workspace more functional, organized, and efficient for everyone.

Among her many contributions, she took the initiative to purchase a label maker and carefully labeled drawers, cabinets, and other areas throughout the office so that supplies and materials could be easily located. She also organized the supply closet, creating a more orderly and accessible system for our staff. These efforts required considerable time and attention to detail and have made a noticeable difference in the day-to-day functionality of our office!

In addition to her efforts related to the office move, Julie recently was asked to take on the additional responsibility of attending the monthly CRCG meetings. She willingly accepted this responsibility and demonstrated a positive attitude toward taking on this
