Collin County
Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Allan Malone

Honoree's Job Title: Foreman

Department: Public Works

Years of Service with the County: 8+

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

While traveling for work, Allan Malone witnessed a stranded motorist and a Good Samaritan attempting to change a flat tire in the middle of a busy, high-traffic two-lane road. Recognizing the immediate safety hazards of the narrow roadway, he pulled over without hesitation, and utilized his vehicles emergency lighting to make other motorists aware of the situation. He actively assisted them in changing the tire by utilizing his training and flagging skills, providing an extra layer of safety and visibility in a highly dangerous environment.

His selfless act goes far beyond his daily job duties and perfectly reflects the core values of what it means to work in Public Works. For his willingness to stop, brave hazardous roadside conditions, and assist strangers in need, I nominate him for the Going the Extra Mile Award.
