Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Sergeant Abigail Monrreal consistently goes above and beyond the expectations of his assigned duties as the Platoon 3 Housing Sergeant by voluntarily serving in several critical leadership roles within the Collin County Sheriff's Office. In addition to supervising a platoon of 60 detention officers, he serves as the Assistant Commander of both the Sheriff's Office Honor Guard and the Detention Response Team, while also instructing newly hired detention officers in handcuffing, restraint devices, and defensive tactics. He routinely dedicates his personal time to planning, coordinating, and conducting training, ensuring these specialized teams remain prepared to serve the Sheriff's Office and the community with the highest level of professionalism. What sets Sgt. Monrreal apart is his leadership by example. Whether coordinating memorial services honoring fallen law enforcement officers, mentoring future leaders, training officers on scheduled days off, or responding alongside the members of the DRT during critical incidents, he never asks others to do something he is unwilling to do himself. His unwavering commitment to developing others, strengthening the organization, and willingly accepting responsibilities beyond his normal assignment truly exemplifies the spirit of the Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Award.
