

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Dalton Johnson
First Name Middle Initial Last Name

Honoree's Job Title: Detention Officer

Department: Sheriff's Office-Detention

Years of Service with the County: 3.5 Years

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Officer Dalton Johnson consistently demonstrates a willingness to take on responsibilities beyond those required of his regular assignment. In addition to his daily duties as a detention officer, Officer Johnson serves as a Field Training Officer, a member of the Honor Guard, and one of only two CPR instructors assigned to Detention.

Each of these responsibilities contributes to the department in a different way. As an FTO, Officer Johnson helps prepare newly hired officers for the challenges and responsibilities of working in a detention environment. His role with the Honor Guard requires professionalism, dedication, and a willingness to represent the department during important events. As one of only two CPR instructors for Detention, he also plays a direct role in helping ensure officers are prepared to respond during medical emergencies. Officer Johnson continues to take on additional responsibilities that benefit both individual officers and the department as a whole. he consistently gives his time and effort to help others succeed. His commitment to training, professionalism, and service beyond his normal duties makes Officer Dalton Johnson a deserving candidate for recognition through the GEM Award.
