Honoree's Name: Jeremiah Wallis
First Name Middle Initial Last Name

Honoree's Job Title: Detention Officer

Department: Sheriff's Office-Detention

Years of Service with the County: 3

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

I respectfully submit this recommendation for the G.E.M. (Going the Extra Mile) Award in recognition of Officer Wallis for initiative, performance, and contributions that exceed the expectations of their assignment. Although assigned as a line-level operator, Officer Wallis consistently demonstrates leadership aligned with supervisory standards, taking ownership of and restructuring the Detention Response Team's inventory management system, resulting in improved accuracy, accountability, and operational readiness. He has further enhanced team capability and cohesion by acquiring additional gear at minimal to no cost, reducing financial impact to the unit. Officer Wallis also dedicated significant time to reorganizing the DRT armory and implementing a sanitation and drying system for team gear, improving functionality, hygiene, and equipment longevity. He serves as an informal leader whose professionalism and work ethic positively influence team culture and set the standard for others. His actions reflect initiative, accountability, and commitment to mission success, bringing credit to the Detention Response Team and the Collin County Sheriff's Office.
