

Collin County Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Recognition Form

Honoree's Name: Jeremy Hopkins
First Name Middle Initial Last Name

Honoree's Job Title: Detention Officer

Department: Detention Services

Years of Service with the County: 19 Years

Why the Honoree is receiving a GEM Award including dates:

Officer Hopkins demonstrates consistent and effective communication. He is an employee that is often overlooked because he quietly works in the background without complaint or hesitation. Officer Hopkins has a deep knowledge of all things in the county, which he has accrued from his 21 years of service. He gets along with everyone I see him interact with whether staff or inmates and goes out of his way to check on the well-being of others; a trait that is more valuable in our field than ever. Recently, Officer Hopkins took a position in Detention Services and was posted in the Mailroom. Officer Hopkins has taken the role and made it efficient and productive, working without a partner for some time before we were able to bring in a second officer. Complaints over lost mail or delays have been reduced in his time there, saving the County and its citizen's time and money in administrative and legal costs. Officer Hopkins is the self-driven and tireless employee any supervisor would want to have. It is for these reasons and more that I want to nominate Officer Jeremy Hopkins as the next Detention Employee of the Month.
