Jerry Amon is the "quiet professional". He performs at a high level, always with a positive attitude, and is consistently helpful to his coworkers and the public. In the last several months we have received several public emails over weekends requesting civil process assistance. Rather than merely referring them to codes or to private processors, Deputy Amon provides responses that are helpful, detailed, and polite. His work ethic, demeanor, and positive interactions with the public are a credit to himself and the Sheriff's Office.
