Section 11. Information Required by Section 3.009 of the Election Code.

(a) As of the date of this Order, the County's aggregate principal amount of outstanding tax-supported debt was $1,133,210,000 and the aggregate amount of outstanding interest on such tax-supported debt was $506,331,862. As of the date of this Order, the County's total ad valorem tax rate is $0.149343 per $100 of assessed valuation, which is made up of a maintenance and operations tax rate of $0.107452 per $100 of assessed valuation and a debt service tax rate of $0.041891 per $100 of assessed valuation of taxable property in the County.

(b) The County intends to issue the bonds authorized by the Propositions over a period of years in a manner and in accordance with a schedule to be determined by the Commissioners Court based upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the then current needs of the County, demographic changes, prevailing market conditions, assessed valuations of property in the County, the use of variable rate debt and management of the County's short-term and long-term interest rate exposure. Market conditions, demographics and assessed valuations of property vary based upon a number of factors beyond the County's control. Therefore, the County cannot and does not guarantee a particular interest rate or tax rate associated with the bonds authorized by the Propositions. As such, the information contained in this paragraph is provided solely for illustrative purposes and does not establish any limitations or restrictions or create a contract with the voters. The County estimates that, based on the County's current taxable assessed valuation, current market conditions as of the date of this Order, and estimated future growth in the County's taxable assessed valuation, if all of the Propositions were approved and all of the bonds authorized by the Propositions were issued in accordance with the County's current projected plan of finance, the maximum interest rate on the bonds is not expected to exceed 5.00%.

(c) Additional information required by Section 3.009 of the Code is contained in Sections 2 and 3 of this Order.

Section 12. Voter Information Document. The Court hereby approves a voter information document for each Proposition (collectively, the "Voter Information Documents"), in substantially the forms presented to the Commissioners Court, with such changes as may be approved by the County Judge, the County Auditor, the County Clerk or their designees, acting on behalf of the County, in consultation with the County Attorney, the County's bond counsel, and financial advisor, as prescribed by Section 1251.052(b), Texas Government Code.

Section 13. Necessary Actions. The County Judge, the County Administrator, the County Clerk, or their designee, acting on behalf of the Commissioners Court, in consultation with the County Attorney and the County's bond counsel, are each hereby authorized and directed to take any and all actions necessary to comply with the provisions of the Code and the Voting Rights Act in carrying out and conducting the Election, whether or not expressly authorized herein, including making changes or additions to polling places or procedures to the extent required or desirable as determined by the Elections Administrator.

Section 14. Severability. If any provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Order, or the application of same to any person or set of circumstances is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, void, invalid, or unenforceable, neither the remaining portions of this Order nor their application to other persons or sets of circumstances shall be affected thereby, it being the intent of the Court in adopting this Order that no portion hereof or provision or regulation contained herein shall become inoperative or fail by reason of any unconstitutionality, voidness, invalidity or unenforceability of any other portion hereof, and all provisions of this Order are declared to be severable for that purpose.

Section 15. Corrections. The County Judge, the County Administrator, the County Attorney and bond counsel are hereby authorized and directed to approve any technical changes or corrections in this Order or to any of the instruments authorized by this Order necessary to (i) correct any ambiguity, mistake, or omission, or (ii) comply with the requirements of the Code, changes in law, administrative interpretations of the law, or the requirements of the Election Agreement.
