

Open Records Act; Freedom of Information Act

Records of Community Supervision and Corrections departments (probation departments) are considered judicial records, and, as such, do not fall under the records described in the Open Records and Freedom of Information Acts. (Ref. Attorney General's Open Records decision #236).